

Biography

Timothy Beacham, MD

Timothy J. Beacham, MD, is a graduate of University of Mississippi School of Medicine (UMMC) in Jackson, Mississippi. He completed his internship and residency in anesthesiology at UMMC. He then completed a multidisciplinary pain fellowship also at UMMC. Dr. Beacham is board certified in Interventional Pain Medicine and Anesthesiology.

Before joining Vitality Pain Center, he served as Assistant Professor of Anesthesiology/Pain Medicine at UMMC, Medical Director of Delta Regional Chronic Pain Clinic, as well as Director of acute pain services at Delta Regional Medical Center. In addition, he served as medical director of Comprehensive Pain Specialist at several locations in Mississippi and Kentucky, as well as recently Regional Director for Capitol Pain Institute. Dr. Beacham has a distinguished career in organized medicine that includes being President of several organizations including the Mississippi Society of Anesthesiology, Mississippi Society of Interventional Pain Physicians, Mississippi Medical and Surgical Association, Kentucky Society of Interventional Pain Physicians as well as serving a number of leadership roles on several board of trustees and medical executive committees.